Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous missu of vegetable decay. This exhalotion is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers neer the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers neer the earth's surfoce, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organa of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the elreulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finelly, the Instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the Internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the CHILL. But in this effort it fails. Then the Feven follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of Feven and Aoue. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine the health if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote,

Ayer's Ague Cure,

which neutralizes this malarious polson in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the which heuralizes the liver to expel It from the blood, and stinulates the liver to expel It from the body. As it should, so it does cure this afflicting disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently It not only cures, but protects from the great variety of affections which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers, Neuralgla, Rheumatism, Gour, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Astluna, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "Ague Cure" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

This it accomplished by stimulating the excre-This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretorics to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habited to do this their office of their own accord. Hence arises what we term acclimatation. Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this "AOUE CURE" does it at once, and with safety. We have great reason to believe this is a surer as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the minsmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.

THE VESPER GAS, OR AIR LIGHT.

The Cheapest, m wt Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World:

Artific Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation. It or elegance, economy, safety, and aimplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas famound fixtures precisely resemble in form thosa of coal gas; but in hrilliancy and purity of light it possesses a decided udwantage over even Louisville coni gas. It requires no chimney, there is no nead of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of tha fixture is so simple that it is not liable tu get out of ordar, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vespor fixtures is generated from pura coal oil, without any admixtura of ulcohol or other oreign lugredient. It is entirely free from door while burning, as, by a simple contrivence, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most linense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleusant to the aye while reading or sewing, there being no flicker or unstendiness in the flame. The Vespor Gas Light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever artificial light is raquired. The fixtures thamselves are adapted in siyles to anit all tastes, from the plain single-light turner to the most coatly chandeller. Each chandeller is perfact in itself, there is no outluy to be made for service pipas. Tha gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single-light burner to the expensive chandeller, are infinuture gas-works in themselves. They are sold et prices which do not succeed the oost of the ordinary gas fixtures of similar style and ornumentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application. ent Artificial Light in the World:

MERCHANTS Visiting Louisville should not fail to procure the Vea-per Oas Fixtures for their stores.

Churches, Motels, Public Halls, and Private Boo-idences Throughout the State cen now he fitted up with these elegant and convenient chandeliers, and other baautiful gas fixtures, which add so much to the appearance of such places, and to the confort of the home circle, and which heretotors could be used only in those favored districts embraced within the coal-gas limits of large clies.

The limited space of an indvertisement precludes the insertion here of the numerous testimonials of approval we have received from all quarters. Suffice it to say, scientific men and others who have examined and thoroughly tested the merits of the Vasper Gas Light, pronounce it the best and cheapest artificial light now thorough. hown.

IT he proprietor respectfully requests responsible merchants in every town and county in the 'tale to correspond with him, believing they will find it to their interest to aid him in introducing this unequaled light to their customers.

Vesper Fixtures and Coal Oil prepared appressly for this Burner kept constantly on hand, and for sale wholesale and retail.

IF Those of our readers who are sincerely desitous that the morals of the slave population of Kentucky may not be infected by the introduc tion of vicious slaves from other States, will regret that the hill to repeal the law of 1833 pass the muintenance of the law as it now stands on the statute book is in the Senate, which body we trust will perform its legitimate functions in placing a conservative check upon the action of the popular branch of the Legislature. We are confident that the repent of the law is not de manded by the interests of the slaveholders of Kentucky, nor by their well matured wishes .-The specious pretense under which the repeal of the law has been urged, that it will diminish the value of slaves, is not only the idlest of abaurdities, but, if true, constitutes a good reason why it should be promptly resisted by the slaveholders, the value of whose property is to be injuriously affected by the repeal But it will have no such effect. The price of uegroes in the cotton States is so unich greater than it is in Kentucky, that the uegro dealer, who naturally seeks the market mucy. Its partial deleat at the late elections torious, and this court is aware of no rule of where his human merchandise will bring the most money, will pass by this State and go fur ther South. It is not to be expected that valuable slaves will be brought from the South to Ken tucky, to be sold here for less than they will bring at home, with the loss to the dealer of the cost of transportation. Kentucky yearly sends thousands of slaves to the South, and one great cause of this is, that they are worth more there than they are here. The laws of trade will necessarily prevent the importation of any considerable number of slaves into Kentucky from other States. But there is one class that will be brought in; the vicious, unmanageable, insuhordinate slaves of Virginia, will be brought in by the negro dealers, who, like buzzards, hover about to spec ulate in such carrion. The diseased and crippled who are unfit for the labor of the South may also occasionally be introduced. But does Kentucky need or want such refuse as this?-Does not a proper regard for the interests of the slave holder, in times like thesa, imperatively demand that the greatest care shall be taken to exclude refractory slaves, promoters of drunken uess, theft, alson, niurder, and insurrection? It s to be honed that the Senate will perform their duty to the slave holder, and to the helpless 100men and children in this matter, by retaining upon the statute book a law which renders it necesstry for every person who brings a slave to Kentucky to first assure biniself of his docility and general good character.

When they arrived at the inn, named the Ring of Cells, the bride found fault with her atended husband for not having his shoes clean! They, however, still pursued the journey, but so church in company with the dirty boots that she renewed the complaint, and setting at defiance all remonstrance, left the church and retu-ed to be married. [Nov. 18, 1859-ti. JOHN HENDERSON

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S PELEBRATED STOMACH BIT TERS can appeul with perfect confidence : physiciaus and eitizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a repu ation heretofore uuknown. A lew facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bure assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit ters for the last year amounted to over a halt-million bottles, and from its munifest steudy merease in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount would never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the proparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in thoso sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their putients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic dorangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have provea Godsend to regions where fever and agua and various other bilious complaints ha counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are n certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprictors a source of un ulloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs. mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to acondition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persous may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant poeuliarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasaut to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic. and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the bonefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach de-rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mothe. and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigora tors that receive the eudorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give n permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all disenses or derangements of the stomneh superannunted invalids, persous of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION .- We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostuttea's Chlebrated STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallie cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the
